GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION. Our office and storehouse are located just west of Railroad Station at Manchester. Allen Place, just off No. Main Street.

TERMS. Cash with order (Check or Money Order) or satisfactory references. Mail Orders Prepaid. One dozen plants of a single variety will be sold at ten times the price of a single plant and one hundred plants at seventy-five times the price of a single plant.

ORDER EARLY. The shipping season is short, consequently a year's business must be handled in a few weeks. Order early while stock is complete.

SIZE OF ORDERS. Owing to cost of handling, we cannot accept orders for less than $1.00.

SHIPPING. Customers are requested to give definite instructions in regard to date of shipment and manner of shipping. In the absence of definite instructions, we will use our own best judgment but with the express understanding that it is without responsibility on our part.

GUARANTEE AND CLAIMS. All plants guaranteed true-to-name and in good condition when shipped. We have no control over stock after it leaves our hands. Complaints will not be considered unless made immediately upon receipt of goods. However, any just complaint will receive our careful attention.

SPECIMEN STOCK. We have many large specimen trees, both shade and evergreen; also flowering shrubs, not quoted in this list, on which we can quote special prices.

DECIDUOUS SHRUBS

Spirea Van Houttei

Once planted in suitable positions they increase in size and beauty from year to year and require but little care. We urge the more extended use of flowering shrubs for small or large grounds, combining as they do a wide range of blooms, foliage, habit of growth and season of bloom. The ornamental effect can be highly increased by a judicious selection and arrangement. Our shrubs are well grown and should be planted in soil which would grow good ordinary vegetables. If manure or fertilizer is used, work it in the soil. Plant deeper than the plant stood in the nursery and don't hesitate to prune both roots and tops, the latter vigorously. Weigelas, Deutzias, Forsythias, Syringas and a few others flower on the preceding years' wood and should be pruned after they have finished flowering, whereas such shrubs as Spireas, Lilacs, Altheas, and Honeysuckle may be trimmed during the winter or early in the spring but the branches only reduced enough to keep them in shape. Hydrangeas, like Grapes, should be cut back to one or two buds.

ACANTHOPANAX PENTAPHYLLUM 7-8 ft.

Five Leaf Aralia

An attractive shrub with glossy deep green leaves and light gray twigs in winter. Slightly thorny. Graceful arching habit; very adaptable. Flowers are yellow; insignificant borne in racemes in June.

WHAT IS SEAL-KRAFT?

A Patented Sealing Process originated and introduced by us, preventing evaporation which is the cause of most failures in transplanting.

Seal-Kraft solves this most important problem, truly supplying the missing link between Nursery and Garden. Seal-Kraft sealing retains within the plant all its original Vigor and Vitality, enabling you to obtain results heretofore impossible.

The Seal-Kraft Coating Process doubles the value of a plant as measured by results the first year.

Seal-Kraft has pioneered the road to safe and successful planting.

OUR GUARANTEE

We unreservedly guarantee our Seal-Kraft Roses to live and to bloom true to name. Seal-Kraft Bush Roses are guaranteed to bloom the first year. We will replace free any Seal-Kraft Rose that does not satisfy this guarantee.

Alice Amos. This is one of the larger growing varieties. Flowers are also quite large. Bright cherry-pink with white eye. Blooms continuously in large trusses.

Ellen Poulsen. Large clusters of fairly large and full flowers, bright rose pink. Profuse bloomer; dwarf. One of the very best.

Gloria Mundi. Clusters of double orange-scarlet flowers, rather large and long lasting. Abundant bloomer, vigorous and bushy. A new sensation in the Baby Ramblers. $.75.

Gruss an Aachen. Fully double, light flesh-pink and salmon yellow flowers with a deeper center.

More like a Hybrid Tea, the Gruss and Aachen is unique among the Polyanthas. One of very best roses grown.

Ideal. This, true to its name, is an ideal Baby Rambler. Blooms are small, dark scarlet shaded with black, borne in large compact bunches; quite double. Blooms continuously all season. $.60.

Lady Reading. Large clusters of rather large, bright red flowers.

Miss Edith Cavell. Scarlet-red, shaded darker. Flowers are small, semi-double. A very fine variety.

Mme. Norbert Levavasseur. Bright purplish-crimson with a lighter center. The original red "Baby Rambler."

Orange Perfection. Large clusters of very showy orange-red flowers.

Orleans. Light red with whitish center. Flowers are small, double. Continuous bloomer. One of the oldest and best.

Triomphe Orleanais. Trusses of large full cherry-red flowers. Long lasting.

Seal-Kraft Hybrid Rugosa Roses

The Rugosa Roses and their Hybrids, such as those in this list, are extremely hardy and bloom continually throughout the summer. They are valuable for planting on banks, against stone work, in groups by themselves or among shrubs, and because of their fine foliage and continuous bloom, they make exceptionally fine hedges.

GOLD SEAL BRAND

Price: 49c each

Amelia Gravereaux. Purplish red; very fragrant. Free bloomer and hardy.

Dr. E. M. Mills. A shrub rose. Small primrose shaded pink flowers. Very prolific.

F. J. Grootendorst. Small, fringed flowers of bright red in large clusters. Continuous bloomer, excellent foliage. Very desirable.

Hansa. Very pretty double, reddish violet flowers of large size, freely produced. Makes beautiful hedge.

Hugonis. Chinese briar rose; a large shrub. Flowers single yellow. Blooms very early.

New Century. Flowers very double; flesh-pink with red center. One of the finest Rugosas.

Pink Grootendorst. Like the original F. J. Grootendorst in all respects except the color which is a clear, light shell-pink.

Seal-Kraft Hardy Climbing Roses

For Rose Arches—Beautiful Hedges—Masses of Bloom on Sloping Banks or Against Walls.

They make a gorgeous display when trained on fences, especially the small flowering kinds known as Ramblers and indicated in our list by the letters (Ramb.) following name. The larger flowering kinds are indicated in the same way by the letters (Cl.).

The Ramblers or small flowering kinds bloom on shoots produced during the spring from wood which grew the summer before. These varieties should be pruned in the summer, after the blooming period. Prune only the wood which has flowered, saving the new canes which come out at base for next season's bloom.

Most of the large flowering Climbers bloom on the older stems. For this reason they should not be pruned at all except to shorten side shoots which have bloomed, or to remove dead, diseased or overgrown canes.

GRANULATED PEAT MOSS

A Most Valuable Garden Requisite Better Gardens, Healthier Plants

GRANULATED PEAT MOSS serves many purposes:

- It contributes humus to soil.
- Promotes root growth.
- It lightens heavy, soggy soil.
- It binds and holds moisture in light or sandy soil assuring a constant supply of moisture for plant roots.
- It is clean, odorless and free from weed seeds.
- It is fine for winter mulching to prevent the constant thawing and freezing which does more damage to plants than any other thing.
- It is unexcelled for summer mulching or top dressing as it conserves moisture, prevents baking and crusting of the top soil, gives a rich dark brown background for the bright flowers and green foliage of growing plants and it keeps down weeds.
- It acts as a reservoir for plant food when applied with commercial fertilizers.
- It is a fine medium for the packing and storing of dahlia and other tubers, bulbs, roots and fruit through the winter months or in transit as it will insulate against temperature damage and is light.
- It supplies the necessary acid reaction to the soil as well as plenty of moisture which is required by Rhododendrons and other evergreen shrubs.
- It is economical to use, one bale sufficient to cover approximately 250 square feet, 1 inch deep, only $3.95.

GENUINE VENEZUELAN GOAT MANURE

HERE IS A FERTILIZER

GOOD FOR

Trees	Roses	Flowers	Vegetable Garden
Evergreens	Shrubs	Lawns	Bulbs

Or what have you

Use about five to ten pounds per 100 square feet.

OUR GENUINE VENEZUELAN GOAT MANURE is your best buy, because:

- It is a natural balanced plant ration and soil builder.
- It positively cannot burn.
- It carries absolutely no weed seeds.
- It is free from all straw, tanbark or other trash.
- It is readily available.
- It increases the humus content of your soil.
- It is inexpensive. One ton is worth two tons of Sheep Manure and costs no more.

PRICES

5 lbs.	$.50	100 lbs.	$2.75
10 lbs.	.85	500 lbs.	12.00

A FEW DON'TS

Don't put fertilizer of any kind so the roots will strike it. Even when worked in the soil it will do no good unless water comes in contact with it so it can be absorbed by the roots.

Don't plant shallow. Always plant as deep or deeper than the plant stood in the nursery. The old marks are readily distinguished.

Don't spray when the sun is shining. Do this early in the morning or the evening. If it rains after you spray do the job again the following evening or morning, for the rain has washed off the insecticide.

Don't water in the heat and glare of the day. Sometimes this will burn the foliage and it may result in a plant dying. This is true many times of Evergreens. Reserve this standing up exercise for the evening.

If you are in doubt about a variety doing well or some insects are bothering you, take the matter up with your Agricultural Experiment Station. They are prepared to give remedies and make no charge for consultation by letter or phone. The Connecticut Experiment Station is located at New Haven, Massachusetts at Amherst, Rhode Island at Kingston.

Don't try to trim your hedge with your "eye." Set stakes and draw a line through the center. Keep your eye on the line. Privet or Berberry will stand occasional trimmings during the summer.

Don't expect good results unless you cultivate. If you permit the soil to bake or get hard and remain so your plants will not thrive, even if they live. Hoe the soil to a depth of 4 or 5 inches. This will permit the air to get into the top soil and will stimulate beneficial soil bacteria to greater effort, will also allow rains to penetrate more readily.

Winter care of most plants is unnecessary if the soil is heavy. However, our light Connecticut soil advocates the use of litter or coarse manure after the ground is frozen. It is a good plan to put a mound of soil 8 to 10 inches around roses and cover this mound with leaves or straw, using boards or evergreen boughs to keep them from blowing away. Always mulch lightly all perennials. It is a paying investment. Labels should be removed and some other sort of identification adopted.
